Impacts on business in Norway

18 February 2020, Reykjavik

Stian Hervik Frantzen, Regulatory Policy Adviser The Norwegian Better Regulation Council

Overview of the process for work on statements

The diagram below shows the Norwegian Better Regulation Council's activities in connection with reviewing report quality and issuing statements.

RECEIPT

 $\bowtie$

E

Ministries and regulators must submit all proposals for new or amended regulations that affect business to the Norwegian Better Regulation Council.

REVIEW

The Norwegian Better Regulation Council reviews the quality of all proposals that affect business and prioritises consultation cases for which it will issue a statement.

DRAFT PREPARATION

The Norwegian Better Regulation Council evaluates the proposal and regulatory impact analysis and prepares a draft statement.

ADOPTION AND DISCLOSURE

The Norwegian Better Regulation Council adopts and publishes the statement

SUBMISSION AND PUBLICATION

The Norwegian Better Regulation Council submits the statement to the responsible authority, and publishes the statement at www.regelradet.no. The responsible authority must make the Norwegian Better Regulation Council's statement publicly available without undue delay.

GUIDANCE MEETING

If the Council deems the basis for decision making to be inadequate, the Norwegian Better Regulation Council initiates a guidance meeting with the responsible authority.

Traffic Light

- Green The proposal has been adequately assessed
- Yellow The assessment has weaknesses
- Red The proposal has not been adequately assessed

- Started the process in June 2016
- Every consultation within NBRC's mandate.
- The Council is free to decide when to give a statement and when to not.
- Consistency is key
